Friends Launch Website

To start off the New Year, The Friends of New Hampshire Drug Courts formally launched its website, www.friendsofnhdrugcourts.org. Visit our website.

The Friends website contains complete information on our new statewide nonprofit organization and provides readers with important information on how to donate and help support our mission, how to join and become a member, how to sign up for our electronic E-newsletter, how to contact us, our recent stories in the news as well as links to other related organizations. Start up costs for the website were provided by the generosity of Woodsville Guaranty Savings Bank.
